Background

Jakarta EE 10 is a major release of the Jakarta EE platform, which provides a comprehensive set of APIs and services for developing and deploying Enterprise Java applications. Jakarta EE 10 includes a number of new features and improvements over Jakarta EE 9, including:

- Support for Java 11 and 17:

Jakarta EE 10 requires Java 11 as the minimum supported version of Java. This means that applications developed on Jakarta EE 10 will be able to take advantage of the latest features and performance improvements in Java 11. Java 17 support is also available.

- 20 Specifications updated:

Jakarta EE 10 includes a number of improvements to existing specifications, including:

- Jakarta CDI 4.0: including CDI-Lite that enables build time extensions.
- Jakarta Security 3.0: supporting OpenID Connect.
- Jakarta Servlet 6.0: for simplified programming and improved security.
- Jakarta Faces (JSF) 4.0: with a modernized API using CDI.
- Jakarta EL 5.0: a standard way to evaluate expressions in Java code.
- Jakarta JSON Binding 3.0: with new support for polymorphic types.
- Jakarta Annotations 2.1
- Jakarta Batch 2.1
- Jakarta Messaging 3.1
- Jakarta Persistence 3.1: standardizing UUID as Basic Type and extending Query language and Query API.
- Jakarta RESTful Web Services 3.1: standardizes a Java SE Bootstrap API and standard support for multipart/form-data.
- Jakarta Concurrency 3.0: moved to the Web Profile and enhances parallel and reactive programming models available to applications.

Jakarta EE 10 is a major release that provides a number of new features and improvements that can help developers to build more powerful and efficient enterprise Java applications.
